It is June 1925, aboard a luxury yacht in the Mediterranean Sea. Archibald Bemington Frath, the internationally famous distributor of champagne and fine wines, and the owner of the multinational corporate enterprise "Grapes of Frath", has invited several close "friends" for a cruise aboard his luxury yacht, The Gilded Vessel. In a secluded bay of a tropical Mediterranean island, murder is discovered, and it is left to you, the audience and surviving guests, to unravel the crime.
